ABSTRACT

This study focuses on analyzing the grammatical mistakes in speaking made by the fifth semester students of English department at Bina Nusantara University. The writer is interested in doing the study since she considers that grammar takes important role in speaking, but we often neglect it. There will be explanation in detail about the importance of language awareness in speaking English language. The method that the writer used in doing the study was by having interviews with 30 fifth semester English Department students of Bina Nusantara University. The research reveals that more than 55% of the students made mistakes in using “zero article”, the most frequent mistake made by the students, and less than 5% of the students made mistakes in applying personal pronoun as object, past perfect tense, wrong forms, double modals, wrong word formation, and adverbial phrase of time, the less frequent mistakes made by the students.
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, I would like to thank God for giving me the strength and ability to finish writing this thesis in time.

I would like to express my great appreciation to Mrs. Ienmeke Indra Dewi as the dean of the Faculty of Letters, and Mrs. Wiwik Andreani as the chairman of English department for helping me with their advice.

I am indebted to many people who have supported me, in one way or another, with this paper, in particular Ms. Tjoo Hong Sing as my mentor for her patience and helpful advice in guiding me writing this thesis.

Next, I am grateful to the fifth semester students from English Department, Faculty of Letters at Bina Nusantara University, who had already given their time to have interviews with me.

I want to give thanks to the following people for what they have done to support me in finishing this study: Mr. Wishnoebrote, and all of the lecturers in Faculty of Letters who have given me a lot of valuable lessons during my study at Bina Nusantara University.

Last but not least, I would like to thank the people I love, my parents, my brothers, and my friends for all the supports that they have given me.
