

ABSTRACT

The goal of this study is to show personality of Hester Prynne before and after punishment, the cause of Hester's personality change, and unconscious mind of Hester Prynne. The research method, which used in this study, is library research. The analysis tells important information that is moral value in life and about abstract things that talk about problems in life and how to solve it. Based on the story in novel, it can be seen that life is not easy thing and every person has his or her own problems. The personalities of Hester Prynne before punishment are natural and elegance woman. The punishment has changed her personality becomes a woman that full of mercy and loves to all people. Hester becomes a strong woman. Her personality change because of the punishment that makes her to have hallucination and delusion about her daughter, Pearl.
