ABSTRACT

The goal of this research were to find out how Jason Becker struggle in living his life and keep composing music although he had a paralyzing disease and to find out what makes Jason had a determined personality. The research used library research method by using psychoanalysis theory by Sigmund Freud. The writer collected the theory by using books and reliable online resources as references. The analysis has been done by analyzed the intrinsic element of fiction: Character, setting and characterization and then analyzing the extrinsic approach of analyzing fiction by using the psychoanalytic theories. The psychoanalytic theories that the writer used are: 3 provinces of mind (id, ego, and super-ego), the interpretation of dream, and defense mechanisms. It can be concluded that Jason has a determined personality and he is capable of living his life through the music.

Keywords: Jason Becker, Struggle of Life, Psychoanalysis Theory