Abstract

*The goals of the research were to find out how is the self-esteem and motivation achieved by the two main characters, as well as the relation between the motivation and self-esteem in the story, entitled The Fault In Our Stars. The method applied was library research. The analysis was done by using intrinsic, such as plot, theme, setting and character and extrinsic theories of literature, which are using Maslow's theory and theory of motivation. The results indicate that both of them were reaching the aspects of self-esteem, such as confidence, respect, and achievement. Both of them present the balancing motivation, which are intrinsic and extrinsic motivation. It is found that motivation and self-esteem is related to each other and motivation always supported the self-esteem. (VN)*

Keywords: self-esteem, motivation, and Maslow's hierarchy of needs.
