ABSTRACT

Rudyard Kipling was a famous British writer. During his life, he wrote so many novels and short stories, one of which gave him the award of Nobel Prize. Kipling spent his childhood in India under the British Rule, in which affect his thought about imperialism. Kim was one of Kipling's novels that he dedicated for the glory of the British Empire and the Imperialism in India. This study tries to show that behind the characters, dialogues, and the setting created by Kipling in Kim, he actually wanted to show the readers about the British Imperialism.
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First, I want to say thank you to God, Jesus Christ, for His guidance throughout the writing of this thesis. Then, I want to thank my mentor, Ma’am Ruth for being so patient and for all her guidance, support, and time during the process of writing and analyzing. I also want to express my sincere gratitude to my parents for all their supports, my sisters for encouraging me, and my little brother for being there for me. Next, I want to thank Mrs. Ienneke Indra Dewi, Mrs. Wiwick Andreani, and Mr. Rudy Purwanto for the support and guidance. Last but not least, I want to thank my best friends, Ramli and family, Nancy, Bebeth, Rani, Heny, Natalia, and Levi for their support and prayer.
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Statement of Acceptance of final paper ................................. ii

Abstract ........................................................................ iii

Acknowledgement............................................................... iv

CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCTION
1.1 Background of Study .................................................. 1
1.2 Statement of Problem ................................................... 2
1.3 Scope and Limitation ..................................................... 2
1.4 Goal and Function ....................................................... 3
1.5 Research Methodology ................................................ 3

CHAPTER 2 IMPERIALISM AND THE BRITISH RULE
2.1 Introduction ............................................................... 4
2.1.1 Definition of Character ...................................... 4
2.1.2 Definition of Setting ......................................... 5
2.2 Imperialism ............................................................. 5
2.2.1 Background of Imperialism .............................. 7
2.2.2 Effect of Imperialism ...................................... 9
2.3 Some Thoughts of Imperialism ............................... 12
2.3.1 J.A Hobson .................................................... 13
2.3.2 Lenin’s Theory .............................................. 14
2.3.3 Kautsky .......................................................... 14
2.3.4 Karl Marx’s Theory ...................................... 14
2.4 Charles Darwin’s Theory ....................................... 15
2.5 British Rule ............................................................ 16
2.5.1 British Imperialism ..................................... 16
2.5.2 The British Empire ...................................... 18
2.5.2.1 The First British Empire ...................... 18
2.5.2.2 The Second British Empire .................. 19
2.5.3 British Rule in India ..................................... 20
2.5.3.1 British East India Company ................. 21
2.5.3.2 From Company to Crown .................. 21

CHAPTER 3 KIM AND THE BRITISH IMPERIALISM
3.1 Introduction .......................................................... 23
3.1.1 Biography of Rudyard Kipling ..................... 23
3.1.2 Kipling, the Imperialist .................................. 26
3.2 Character Analysis .................................................. 27
3.2.1 Kim ............................................................. 27
3.2.1.1 Kim’s Dilemma .................................... 29
3.2.1.2 Kim’s Belief ......................................... 34