ABSTRACT

Based on the writer experience, in learning English the students at school focus on the grammar only, without practicing their English Grammar. In this paper the writer tries to make an effective teaching methodology to junior high school students at a private English Institution in order to make the students learn about the lesson in a communicative way. This paper discusses the method of teaching Simple Past Tense, the form, some exercises are given. The main propose of this paper is to make the students in junior high school can major both theory and skill, so that they can get two benefits in learning English which are grammar and speaking skill, in this case in Simple Past Tense.

Key Words: Simple Past Tense, Junior HighSchool Students, Private English Institution, Method of Teaching.
ACKNOWLEDGMENT

First of all, I would like to thank Almighty God and His help so that I can finish writing this paper.

I wish to extend my gratitude to Dra. Inneke Indra Dewi, the dean of English Department, Dra. Wiwick Ademani the head of English Department for moral support and concern during the paper writing, Mr. Radi Purwanto M.Ed. who always gives me guides and his time in writing this paper.

I also not forget to say my biggest thanks to my mentor: Mrs. Angelica Aurore Bunanta, B.Ed. TEFL, M.Ed. TESOL whom always be patients in giving me the guidance and give me her valuable time.

I am also grateful to all the lectures at University of Bina Nusantara, particularly Miss. Lily Novita Mudjianto who also gives me the support and lending me the book.
And to Miss Rini keep smiling, you are a friendly lecture.

Many thanks to my family especially my beloved mother who always support me in material and even in her continue prays. Without my beloved mother I am nothing.
And also for my sister Nurbaiti who always accompany me in typing this paper. Finally I would like to thank to all my friends especially for two my best friends, they are Nurhasanah and Dewi Ardiningsih who always give me wonderful days.

Jakarta, July 2001
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Abstract ................................................................................................................. i
Acknowledgment ................................................................................................. ii
Table of Contents ................................................................................................. iii

CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCTION ..................................................................... 1

1.1 Background .................................................................................................. 1
1.2 Statement of problem .................................................................................. 2
1.3 Scope and Limitation ................................................................................... 3
1.4 Goal and Function ....................................................................................... 4
1.5 Research Methodology ................................................................................ 4

CHAPTER 2 CONTENTS ........................................................................... 5

2.1 Teaching Grammar ....................................................................................... 5
2.2 Function of Simple Past Tense ..................................................................... 7
2.3 The Forming of Simple Past Tense ............................................................... 8
   2.3.1 The forming of be in Simple Past Tense ................................................. 8
      2.3.1.1 The Positive Form of be ............................................................... 8
      2.3.1.2 The Negative Form of be ............................................................ 8
      2.3.1.3 The Interrogative Form of be ..................................................... 9
   2.3.2 The Examples of be Form .................................................................... 10
      2.3.2.1 Be Form in Fact ......................................................................... 10
      2.3.2.2 Be Form in Place and Time ......................................................... 10
      2.3.2.3 Be Form in Adjective ................................................................ 11
   2.3.3 Forming of Verb in Simple Past Tense ................................................. 11
      2.3.3.1 The Positive Form of Verb ......................................................... 11
      2.3.3.2 The Negative Form of Verb ....................................................... 11
      2.3.3.3 The interrogative Form of Verb ................................................ 12
   2.4 Table Irregular Verb .................................................................................. 12
   2.5 Table Regular Verb .................................................................................. 16

CHAPTER 3 TEACHING METHODOLOGY ........................................... 21

3.1 Reading Activity ......................................................................................... 22
   3.1.1 Reading Passage ................................................................................... 22
      3.1.1.1 Choosing the Answer ................................................................ 23
   3.2 Speaking Activity ..................................................................................... 24
      3.1.2 Answer the question Orally ............................................................. 25
   3.3 Exercises in Past Tense .......................................................................... 26
3.3.1 Fill in the Blanks ......................................................... 26
3.3.2 Changing the sentences ................................................. 27
3.4 Story Telling ................................................................. 28
3.4.1 Telling Past Story ......................................................... 28

CHAPTER 4 CONCLUSION ......................................................... 30

4.1 Conclusion ................................................................. 30
4.2 Suggestion ................................................................. 31

CHAPTER 5 SUMMARY (IN INDONESIAN) .................................. 33

References

Curriculum Vitae